The average child predator pays $30 to violate a child for 15 mins., the same $30 puts a highly trained SCTNow operative team in the field for 15 mins.! $15K will send operative teams across the United States & take child predators off the street.

SCTNow 2010 Walk Season Has Arrived!

Stop Child Trafficking Now is proud to announce the 2010 Walk Season. The Walks are part of a nationwide campaign, slated for October 2-3, 2010, in an effort to raise funding and awareness to end child slavery. SCTNow's 2009 Walk Campaign included 39 communities and 80 college campuses. This year, SCTNow hopes to double last year's efforts, by launching walks in each of the 50 states, as well as on 4 continents. Below is a list of current walk cities.

SCTNow Supports Anti-Trafficking Bill in California

SCTNow and California Against Slavery (CAS) (www.californiaagainstsavery.com) are in support of a bill that would raise the sentencing time, penalties and fines for those found guilty of trafficking, as well as make the practice of sex trafficking a minor a criminal offense in the state of California.

If you are a California state resident, help pass the bill by downloading and signing this petition now - <http://www.californiaagainstsavery.org/volunteer/downloadpetition/>. To pass this bill, one million signatures are required by March 31, 2010.

If you are NOT a California state resident, you are still able to follow this site and see what you CAN do to help. To read the initiative of the bill in its entirety, follow the links below.
